

“Congratulations John Wright!”

John Wright, AmRAMP Cleveland, received a special recognition award from the City of Cleveland for his "ongoing donation of services during the annual Disability Awareness Symposium, which focuses on building awareness for those living among us with special needs."

A ramp was donated to the church that John and Martha were married in, by amRAMP for easier access to the church and offices.

